Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:
Applicants attorneys argued that there was no reasonable chance of success of obtaining an acceptable product when using rapid film fabrication processes as opposed to other processes of the prior art but it was the position of the examiner that it was not clear if the processes of Lee's examples anticipated those claims embracing blown films. Applicants argued that there were unexpected results when using SLEPs as opposed to conventional polyolefins when specifically rapid film fabrication processes were used.

(A fuller description, if necessary, and a copy of the amendments which the examiner agreed would render the claims allowable, if available, must be attached. Also, where no copy of the amendments that would render the claims allowable is available, a summary thereof must be attached.)
